Reminiscing the Pandiyan Era

24 December 2022 - 30 December 2022

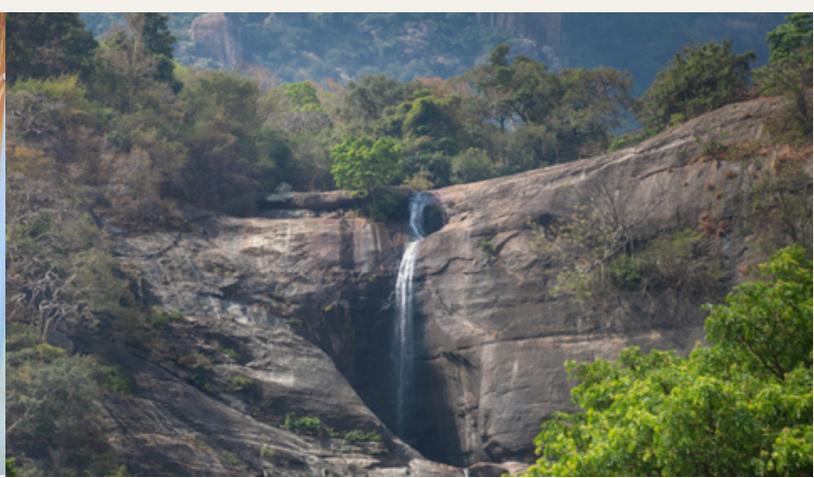

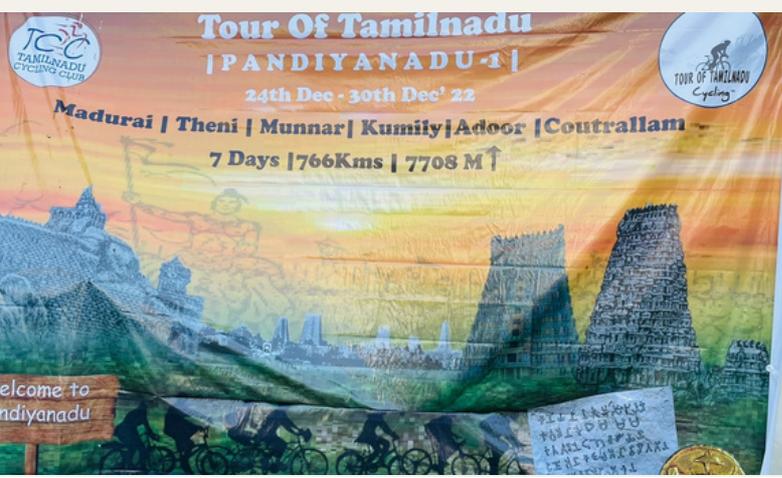

A Heritage Trail in and around Madurai

Ancient Tamil scriptures lauds the legacy of the Pandiyas. The Pandiya dynasty is the most ancient out of the three crowned-dynasties, with Madurai as its administrative capital. The kingdom was the official hub for the development of Tamil literature, Music and Drama and formation of Tamil Sangam. To discover and learn more about their contribution in building their dynasty, TN Tourism along with Tamil Nadu Cycling Club organised a historical Pandiyanadu cycling trail.

The trail started on 23rd December with an active participation of a group of cyclists. The trail was flagged off by Thiru. R. Shiva Prasad, IPS, Superintendent of Police, Madurai. This 6-day cycling trail covered 6 major cities and towns that were a part of the Pandiya dynasty.

The trail started at Madurai and covered the scenic Theni and Munnar, took a turn to Kumily and Adoor, and finally halted at the pristine Coutrallam. The cyclists rode and covered 766 km in this trail.

Photography tour for the deaf An Exclusive Architectural Heritage Visit

To commemorate World disability day and promote inclusive tourism, Tamil Nadu tourism sponsored a 1-day photography tour for deaf photographers arranged by the Madras Photo Bloggers (MPB). They visited the heritage town Mamallapuram and the treasured island Mudaliyar Kuppam to capture their beauty.

The participants were accompanied by historians and story curators from Nam Veedu Namoor Nam Kadhai who shared the significance on various aspects of the places visited and made the trip interactive and engaging.

Sign-language interpreters from MPB conversed with the participants and explained the tales told by the curators. The entire trip gave the participants a space to showcase and develop their photography skills and capture the moments from a varied perspective. The best photos taken were featured on the TTDC's Instagram page.
